Sheila is speaking to her friend Alison on the phone

Alison: Sheila, where are you?

Sheila: I’m at “Teen’s”.

Alison: What are you buying?

Sheila: I’m buying some new clothes for the party this evening at Pete’s. What about you?

Alison: I’m at the Hard Rock Café Store. I’m looking for a T-shirt for Pete’s birthday.

By the way, are you coming?

Sheila: Of course I am! Oh, remember: his favourite colours are blue and black. He hates bright colours like turquoise, red or yellow! He always wears jeans or black trousers and a dark shirt! He’s “dark” and moody, you know!

Shopping for clothes at a Department Store

Shop Assistant: Can I help you?

Sheila: Well, I’m going to a party this evening, I need a pair of leggings and a blouse.

Shop Assistant: What about this pair of leggings? They would look great on you!

Sheila: I don’t like them very much. They’re too dark! I love these white leggings. That pink blouse over there matches them well! Can I try both of them on?

Shop Assistant: What size are you, S(mall) or M(edium)?

Sheila: S(mall).

Shop Assistant: I have a pink blouse in a medium, but we have run out of small white leggings.

Sheila: What a pity! I’ll try the blouse on anyway. Where’s the fitting room?

Shop Assistant: Over there, on the left.

After a while

Sheila: It doesn’t fit me. It’s too big. Can I try a small size, please?

Shop Assistant: Here you are. Please try it on.

Sheila: Yes, this is the right size. I’ll take it.

Let’s go out....yes, but how??

Julie : Hey Diana, what are you doing on Saturday night?
Diana : Nothing. Why?
Julie : Well, Robert’s having a party. Why don’t we go?
Diana : I’d love to go.....but where does he live?
Julie : He lives on the outskirts, on the road to Oxford.
Diana : Mmm....the problem is transport. Are there any buses at night?
Julie : I don’t think so. Shall we take a taxi?
Diana : Oh no, it’s too expensive!
Julie : Let’s go on my scooter then.
Diana : Oh, it’s too cold and wet! How about asking your parents to lend you their car?
Julie : Mm, that’s a good idea. I’ll try.
Diana : Good luck.

(Later, at home)

Julie : Oh Dad, are you using the car on Saturday night?
Father: I don’t think so, dear. Why?
Julie: Well, Robert’s having a party and Diana and I would like to go, but we haven’t got any transport.

Father: Well, you can use the car …...

Julie: Oh thank you Daddy. You’re fantastic!!

Father: …but there’s one condition.

Julie: What?

Father: Don’t drink any alcohol at the party….and come home at a decent time!

Julie: Don’t worry Dad. And thanks!

At the cinema

Brad and Nick meet after school

B: Hi Nick, how are you?
N: I’m fine, thanks.
B: What are you doing this evening?
N: I’d like to go to the cinema with Tom: why don’t you come with us?
B: Good idea, but I’ll ask Jenny if she wants to come too.
N: Good, see you later, then. Bye.
B: So long.

It's eight o'clock p.m. and the four friends meet in front of the cinema.

T: Hey, guys. What kind of film are we going to see?

N: I like horror films: what about going to see Don’t Open that Door 2?
B: What??!!! I don’t like horror films! They scare me!!! Do you agree with me, Jenny?
J: Yes, you’re right. I don’t like scary films. Why don’t we go to see a love story?
T: Look at this: I’ll Love You for Ever.
It’s perfect!
N: Noooo! Not for me, thanks!
J: Come on Nick! Let's get inside.
N: No, please. Help me!!

At the counter
T: Four tickets, please. Is there a reduction for students?
C: Yes, you can get a 20% reduction if you have a student’s card.
The four friends: Here are our cards.
C: Very good. Which film are you going to see?
J: I’ll Love You for Ever.

C: Do you prefer an aisle seat or a middle row seat?

J: Middle row seats, please.

T: What time does the film start?

C: It starts in about ten minutes.

B: Good; so we have some time to buy a Coke and some crisps.

C: You can’t take any drink inside, sorry.

J: Oh no, that’s a pity.

B: Never mind, we can go to drink something later, when the film finishes.

J: Yes, you’re right. Come on now, the film is going to start.

T: Good, let’s go inside.

PRESENT CONTINUOUS

• Si usa per descrivere qualcosa che è in corso di svolgimento in questo preciso momento o comunque nel momento in cui si sta parlando.
• Forma: Soggetto + Simple Present be + forma ING del verbo (gerundio)

Es.          I       am         eating.
             You     are         reading
             She     is          dreaming

• Il present continuous è spesso accompagnato da avverbi di tempo quali NOW, AT THE MOMENT, IN THIS MOMENT, AT PRESENT etc., ma anche TODAY, THIS WEEK, THIS YEAR etc.

Es.          We are watching T.V. at the moment.
             They are playing football now.
             She is going to work by car today.
             I’m studying the history of England this year at school.

VARIAZIONI ORTOGRAFICHE NELLA FORMAZIONE DEL GERUNDIO (-ING)

• Se il verbo finisce in Y si aggiunge ING

Es.          They are playing football now.
             I’m studying the history of England.

• Se il verbo finisce per E muta, la E cade e si aggiunge ING

Es.          Mum is making (make → mak(e)ing) a cake.
             We are phoning (phone → phon(e)ing) our friends now.

• Se il verbo è un monosillabico che termina per consonante preceduta da vocale, la consonante raddoppia.
Es. The car is stopping (stop + p + ing) in this moment.
The cat is running (run +n+ing).

N.B. Il verbo travel, sebbene non sia monosillabico, raddoppia anch’esso la consonante finale → travelling.

• ATTENZIONE, perché non tutti i verbi possono essere usati al presente progressivo: i verbi che esprimono sentimenti (feel, like, love, hate, prefer, wish, etc) non prendono MAI la forma ING;
• I verbi che indicano attività della mente (hope, believe, understand, realise, want etc.) non prendono MAI la forma ING;
• I verbi di percezione quali hear e see nel loro significato primario di sentire e vedere non prendono MAI la forma ING;
• Il verbo think ha un doppio comportamento:
  1. quando significa ritenere, avere un’opinione, non prende MAI la forma ING;
  2. quando significa pensare a qualcuno o a qualcosa, allora può essere coniugato al gerundio:
Es. 1. What do you think about this book? I think it’s very interesting.
     2. What are you thinking about? I’m thinking about my last holidays.
• Il verbo have got quando significa possedere;
• Il verbo be.

FORMA INTERROGATIVA

Essendo un tempo verbale formato con il verbo essere (to BE), per ottenere la forma interrogativa con relativa risposta breve, basta invertire l’ordine soggetto-verbo ausiliare:

Es. Are you watching T.V.? Yes, I am / No I am not
Is she going to school by car? Yes, she is/No, she isn’t Am I reading your newspaper? Yes, you are/No, you aren’t.

FORMA NEGATIVA

Come per la forma interrogativa anche per la negativa si segue la stessa regola del Simple Present di to be e quindi avremo: Soggetto+ verbo + not:

Es You aren’t watching tv

She isn’t going to school by car.
SIMPLE PRESENT vs PRESENT CONTINUOUS

In italiano sia che si parli di azioni abituali che di azioni che si stanno svolgendo nel momento in cui si parla usiamo il presente, invece in inglese si distinguono i due tempi.

Se l’azione è abituale cioè si compie con regolarità si usa il Present Simple.

Se l’azione è momentanea cioè accade in questo momento si usa il Present Continuous.

Di solito troviamo i due tempi verbali accompagnati dalle sottoelencate espressioni di tempo.

PRE-READING ACTIVITY

1. Make a list of all the types of films you know.
2. Can you name a title for each type?
3. Which do you like most?
4. Do you watch films at home or at the cinema? How often do you see a film?

THE PLOT

“Gladiator” is the title of a Hollywood blockbuster, shot in 2000. The film director is Ridley Scott and famous American stars such as Russell Crowe and Joaquin Phoenix act in it. The movie is a real success and wins 5 Oscars.

The film starts with Marcus Aurelius as Emperor of the Roman Empire. Before his sudden death, caused by power-hungry son Commodus, he names his loyal and brave general Maximus Decimus Meridas as his heir. The jealous Commodus discovers the plan and decides to kill his father and execute Maximus and his family. Only the general escapes the execution but becomes a slave and is trained as a gladiator. His only hope is to revenge his emperor, his wife and his son one day. After some time Maximus goes back to Rome with a group of gladiators to fight in the Colisseum where he reveals his true identity and eventually dies taking his revenge on Commodus.
the word gladiator comes from the Latin word gladius, which means sword. So gladiator means swordsman. Gladiators were armed combatants who fought against other gladiators, wild animals and criminals.

for the shooting of Maximus fighting against another gladiator, 5 tigers were in the arena. For Russell Crowe’s sake a vet was present with sleeping darts and the actor never went very close to the animals.

HISTORICAL MISTAKES

- when the Emperor Marcus Aurelius is in his tent with Maximus at the beginning of the film, behind them there are some books. This is impossible because books did not exist;

- the Roman soldiers and the gladiators use shining and bright swords. This is impossible because at that time swords, and arms in general, were dark because steel was not commonly used;

- in the arena gladiators fought against lions. And not tigers!

- when Maximus goes back home, there are signs in the fields left by ... tractors!
Exercise n1.

4. Commodus does not like the power.
5. Maximus becomes the new Roman Emperor.
6. Maximus has no family.
7. Maximus is a soldier and then becomes a gladiator.
8. After Marcus Aurelius's death, Maximus never goes back to Rome.
9. Maximus fights against lions in the Coliseum
10. Eventually Maximus takes his revenge on Commodus.
Exercise n.2.

Read the text again and answer the following questions.

1. When and where is Gladiator shot?
2. Why is the film a success?
3. Who becomes heir after the Emperor’s death?
4. Why does Commodus kill his father?
5. Does the movie have a happy ending?
6. What does gladiator mean? What origin does it have?
7. Why was the shooting in the Coliseum dangerous?
8. Make 2 examples of historical mistakes.
9. Who did gladiators fight against?
10. How would you define Maximus’s personality? And Commodus’s one?

WRITING

Write a short paragraph (about 100 words) about a film you really like. Follow the items to help you:

a. title of the movie
b. director
c. protagonists
d. plot
e. give reasons for your choice

Did you know?

The name Piccadilly Circus, one of the most famous squares in the world, has a very curious origin: it first appeared in 1626 as Pickadilly Hall, as in the southern corner of the square there was a house belonging to a Robert Baker, a tailor famous for selling piccadills, or piccadillies, a term used for various kinds of collars. People used to refer to the place with the name of this garment, so the place was known as piccadills. Circus is the Latin word meaning "circle", and it refers to a round open space at a street junction.
